John is a model communicator as evidenced by his dedication to purpose, reliability and understanding of emergency communications. As District Emergency Coordinator (DEC) of Southeast Wisconsin he is responsible for the counties of Kenosha, Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Walworth, Washington and Waukesha and as Emergency Coordinator (EC) for Milwaukee County he gives special emphasis to activities in this area. The hundreds of volunteers, who John trains and coordinates, support a variety of programs - from encouraging hospitalized children with Operation Santa to guiding oldtimers on Senior Citizen's Day. In recent times he has been a pioneer in leading volunteer communicators to help make the City of Festivals Parade a success. His continuing support of the weather emergency system is to be admired by all residents of our community. This work is greatly appreciated by all. Thank you John Leekley, WB9SMM.
